Preamble

The ICRV agreement as it has been assigned on 29th October 1990 in Paris is still valid concerning its aim, cooperation between participating countries in tackling vehicle crime.

The availability of data, the kind of information needed and technology since rectification have been rapidly changed. Therefore the initial agreements are updated and in this replacing convention.

On political level there is great willingness in the European Union to tackle vehicle crime via public private partnership and recognition that information exchange is essential. Therefore the ICRV update 2006 provides an alignment with the political view on the needed structure as decided by the European Committee in AU 5123 (Enfopol).

Essential element in effective cooperation to try to stop a vehicle being fraudulently exported: the speed of intervention.

The practical guide has been prepared to assist in immediate mobilization of the means available to member organizations of the ICRV.

3 Operational Requirements on the ICRV agreement

Art 1 Insurance Contact Point

For the operation of the ICRV agreements every country must have an insurers contact point in place. The responsibility for the establishment of an insurers contact point will fall to the participating countries individual Association of Insurers. The Taskforce believes that no generic requirements are demanded on the way it's national organised. However the services of the insurers contact point are done under responsibility of the Association of Insurers and on a non-profit base. Due to the core principals of the ICRV i.e. reciprocity and the non-profit making ethos should be respected. Otherwise it is possible that the organisation operating the insurers contact point, commissioned by the Association, delivers also services on profit base. These services are nevertheless not in scope of the ICRV.

Nb art. 2, 3, 4 and 7 of ICRV

Art 2 Information (content)

As far as legally and technically feasible the contact point should provide data concerning:

- Stolen vehicles
- Seized vehicles
- Vehicles that are totally damaged (total loss)
- Insurance information on the above mentioned vehicles

The information on the relevant vehicles should preferably (highest standard) concern the following elements:

- VIN
- License plate number
- Country of issue
- Location of the seized vehicle
- Authority involved
- Condition of the vehicle

Nb art 4 and 5 of the ICRV

Standard response on a request will not take no longer than two (2) working days.

Art 3 National cooperation

The participating organisations will exercise their best efforts to obtain information on illegally imported and seized stolen vehicles from other jurisdictions which are present in their jurisdiction, and will pass such information to the organisations in the other jurisdictions.

Therefore the insurance contact point has a good cooperation with the relevant bodies in the country of jurisdiction (art 1 and 5 of the ICRV).
