

Insurance Europe is the European insurance and reinsurance federation. Through its 36 member bodies — the national insurance associations — it represents all types and sizes of insurance and reinsurance undertakings. Insurance Europe, which is based in Brussels, represents undertakings that account for around 95% of total European premium income. Insurance makes a major contribution to Europe's economic growth and development. European insurers pay out almost €1 000bn annually — or €2.7bn a day — in claims, directly employ nearly 920 000 people and invest over €10.6trn in the economy.

For our Economics and Finance department, we are looking for a:

Economics and finance intern

Function

In this role, you will support Insurance Europe's economics and finance department in the area of prudential regulation (ie Solvency II) and international affairs:

- Support the preparation of Working Group meetings by drafting supporting documents and presentations, as well as follow-up of actions;
- Contribute to the understanding of issues (eg actuarial, risk management related issues) and draft memos when required;
- Perform research on ad-hoc issues and maintaining files up-to-date;
- The intern will be considered as part of the team and given responsibilities up to his/her abilities;
- Other day-to-day duties as assigned under the supervision by the head of department.

Profile

- University studies in economics, actuarial sciences and/or risk management;
- Very good analytical skills and proven ability to synthesise feedback;
- Active listener, skilled and efficient communicator;
- Able to work independently and in a team;
- Excellent drafting skills.

Offer

This internship provides a great opportunity to gain valuable work experience in a stimulating international environment. You will have the possibility to participate in projects that will influence the European insurance industry over the coming years. Paid internship for a period six months.
